Term appointments for Adjunct Professors or Sessional Lecturers

UBC School of Information invites applications for term appointments to teach the following in-person courses for the academic year Winter 2025-2026:

Winter Term 1 Sept – Dec 2025:

- LIBR 511: Cataloguing and Classification
- INFO 200: Foundations of Informatics

Winter Term 2 Jan – April 2026:

- ARST 520: Selection and Acquisition of Archival Documents
- ARST 516: Management of Current Records

We are also accepting applications for term appointments not restricted to the above courses.

Adjunct Professors and Sessional Lecturers are expected to prepare and teach a 3-credit course during the term. Each course comprises of usually thirteen classes of three hours each. The current salary for a 3-credit course is approximately $8,300.

The School of Information will consider applicants with a PhD or Master's degree in Library, Archival and Information studies, and with relevant professional experience.

Equity and diversity are essential to academic excellence. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Métis, Inuit, or Indigenous person. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

Please send an expression of interest noting your areas of teaching interest and experience, as well as a current CV to the attention of Dr Luanne Sinnamon, Director, at ischool.recruit@ubc.ca. Deadline for submission is March 1, 2025.
